The Socfin Group has published its policy for responsible management.

Thursday 22nd of December 2016

The Socfin Group is working daily to become a leading company in the responsible tropical agriculture. The Group is well aware of the development issues in the countries where it is located and wishes to contribute to it by this policy.

In this document, the Socfin Group presents the principles of its policy: best management practices, responsible development of its operations, respect the human rights and transparency; and elaborate a strategy to implement them.

By the end of the first quarter of 2017, the Socfin Group will publish then action plan expected in this policy.

The Socfin Group is convinced that its activities must create value for all, that these values need to be shared between each, whilst insuring the economic viability of the Group and of its operations.
